Governor of Tennessee Nominated for Vacant Seat in United States Senate.

BIG MAJORITY AT THE CAUCUS

Vote Was Taken by Acclamation Amid Much Enthusiasm.

(By Associated Fress.) NASHVILLE, TENN., March 15.-Gov-ernor James B. Frazier was this afternoon nominated for United States senated by the Democratic caucus of the State Legislature. The vote was by acclamation, no other name being presented to th terests. A test vote came, however, in an effort to adjourn the caucus until Monday next. The motion was defeated, 25 to 64, and it was apparent that the Frazier forces were in the ascendancy. Friends amnounced the withdrawal of ex-Governor Taylor and of Mr. McMillia from the race. The efforts to postpone action was productive of some talk fraught with feeling, the phrases of snap judgment and "conspiracy" being rather freely used. After the defeat of the motion, however, Governor Frazier's nomination followed amid much enthusiasm, which continued through the Governor's graceful speech of acceptance.

Governor Frazier's election is assured, as the Legislature is very largely Demo-cratic. He will succeed the late Senator William B. Bate, who was himself elected William B. Bate, who was himself elected by the present Legislature, and, therefore, practically has a senatorial term before him. Tuesday, March 21st, is the day set for the formal election by the joint assembly. Governor Frazier will be succeeded in the gubernatorial chair by John 1, Cox, present speaker of the State Senate.

ceeded in the gubernatorini chair by Join 1. Cox, present speaker of the State Senate.

Until elected Governor in 1902, James B. Frazier had never held public office, although in 1800 he was presidential elector for the State at large. He is in his forty-ninth year, having been born in Bledsoe county, Tenn., October 18, 1856. In 1862 his father, Thomas N. Frazier, removed to Nashville, where he was appointed judge of the Criminal Court by Governor Andrew Johnson. Here young Frazier received his early education, later attending the University of Tennessee, from which he graduated in 1878.

He read law under his father and was admitted to the Nashville bur in 1881, removing shortly thereafter to Chattanooga, where until his election as Governor he was a successful practitioner. Governor Frazier comes of an old Tennessee family, the men of which have been noted for integrity and public spirit. His great-grandfather was a member of the State Constitutional Convention in 1796. Mrs. Frazier was Miss Louise Keth, of McMinn county.

PANDEMONIUM IN MISSOURI ASSEMBLY

Speaker Said He Would Vote for Democrat if Republicans Couldn't Agree.

(By Associated Press.)
JEFFERSON CHY, MO., March 15.—
To-day's joint balloting by the Legislature for United States Senator falled to break the dead-lock. Speaker Hill created a sensation by declaring that he would yote for a Democrat rather than see the assembly adjourn without electing a senator.

Speaker Hill's announcement was followed by clamorous cheering, but it apparently provoked a storm of indignation from the Republicans, Jone member demanded the speaker's resignation.

Instantly the assembly was in an uprost, After the confusion had continued about fifteen minutes Senator McDavid, Republican, made a motion that the joint session be dissolved, which was carried.

COLUMBIA: S.-C., March 15.—In a case brought before ithe Supreme Court of South Carolina on a demurrer, a decision was landed down to-day declaring that it is libelious to publish a white man as negro. Two newspapers referred to a white man as "colored." He entered suit against each for $10,000. One paper demurred, claiming that under the Thirteenth. Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the Federal Constitution application of the word "negro" or "colored" to any one is not defamatory nor libelious. The court cites a number of cases and says:

"It must be apparent from consulting the texts of these amendements that there is not the slightest reference to the so-cial conditions of the two races, and nothing can be imported into those amendments to give any such effect. All take pleasure in bowing to the authority of the United States in regard to these three the United States in regard to these three amendments, but we would be very far from admitting that the social distinction subsisting between the two races has been any way affected.

'We, therefore hold that these three amendments to the Federal Constitution have not destroyed the law of this State, which makes the sublication of a willing the state. which makes the publication of a white man as a negro libel."
